About Northwest Education Services

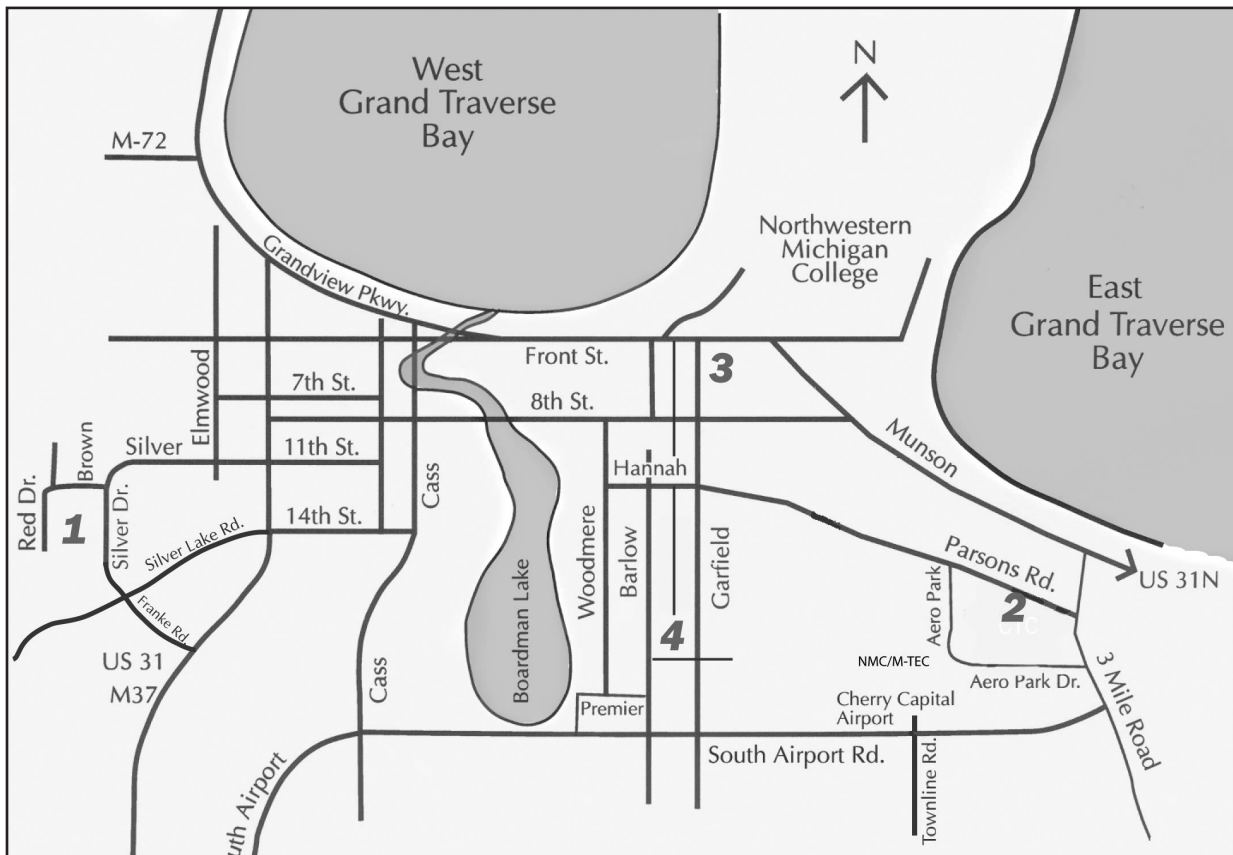

Northwest Education Services (North Ed) is one of 56 intermediate school districts (ISD) in Michigan. When ISDs were established in 1964, the term “intermediate” was selected to represent the links between local school districts and Michigan Department of Education.

North Ed’s service area includes the five counties of Antrim, Benzie, Grand Traverse, Kalkaska, and Leelanau. It is committed to continually seeking the most effective ways to serve the 16 public school districts, six public school academies, 12 private and parochial schools, and a community college by delivering educational supports to educators and quality education opportunities for all students.

North Ed key roles include:

- Fostering regional collaboration
- Responding to the needs of districts throughout the region
- Supporting best practices
- Developing programs and resources that move schools and citizens into the future

With a commitment to collaboration, North Ed maintains a regional focus. Cooperation between local school districts, communities, human service agencies, and area businesses and organizations is critical to promoting educational quality and cost effectiveness.
